

Emergency Scholarship for International Students

“Emergency Scholarship for International Students” is the scholarship to support international students whose family’s financial circumstances have changed suddenly and who have difficulty in continuing their studies because of sudden changes in financial circumstances such as their financial supporter’s loss of job, bankruptcy, sickness, death, natural disaster, or other emergency reasons.

Students who need Application Guidelines in English, please come to Scholarships and Financial Assistance Section. (Toyama Campus, Student bldg., 1st floor)

- 1. Eligibility: Students who meet all the following three requirements (1) through (3).
- (1) At the time when students apply, the reason of sudden changes in their family’s financial circumstances has happened within the past ONE year (January 2011-December 2011).
 - (2) Students who are recognized that it is difficult for them to continue their studies.
 - (3) Students who are in regular course and will be able to graduate within standard course term (for undergraduate school) or are on the grade of standard course term (for graduate school).
- ※ Students whose resident status is “permanent resident” (eijusha), “long-term resident”(teijusha), “spouse of a Japanese resident”, or “spouse of a permanent resident” are not eligible for this scholarship. They are eligible to apply for “校友会 給付緊急奨学金”. Please read the guidelines of that scholarship.

【NOTICE】 Sudden changes which happened more than 1 year ago are not accepted.

2. Stipend: 400,000 Yen (1 year)

3. Deadline: January 13th, 2012 (Strictly adhered) ※Mailing is NOT accepted.